How we give back

At CIT and our OneWest Bank division, we take pride in the work we do to invest in communities and create a thriving workplace with the highest level of integrity. Among other activities, we actively support and invest in affordable housing, economic development, neighborhood stabilization and core community services across Southern California. Since 2016, CIT has invested nearly $5 billion to advance affordable housing, economic development, education and access to credit for small businesses in Southern California. Our nationwide social responsibility framework focuses on financial and personal empowerment, supporting the environment, and advancing wellness.
